EXT. OUTSIDE - DAY

JEREMY and RANDAL are crouching behind a barricade. JEREMY reaches over the barricade and fires his gun.

JEREMY

All right, here's the plan, you go right and distract them, and I'll go left and try to get behind and flank them. Got it?

RANDAL

Charge in blindly and kill them all, got it.

JEREMY

No, that's not what I-

RANDAL stands up and yells and is immediately shot. JEREMY sighs. RANDAL's body disappears and then RANDAL runs up and crouches behind the barricade again.

RANDAL

I'm back.

JEREMY

Yes, I can see that. Are you ready to go with my plan now?

RANDAL

Uh, maybe. What was it?

Jeremy sighs.

JEREMY

You go right and try to distract them, without getting killed. I'll go left and make my way around behind them. Understand?

RANDAL

I think so. Distract enemy, don't die.

JEREMY

Yeah, pretty much. Ready?

RANDAL

Nope, but we might as well go now anyway.

RANDAL grins and JEREMY grins back. RANDAL dashes out from behind the barricade to another cover, firing his gun as he goes. The enemy returns fire.

JEREMY

Well, seems they're distracted.
(as an afterthought)
He said to himself.

JEREMY steals away and begins to maneuver behind the enemy lines.

JEREMY (CONT'D)

Wait, where is everyone?

JEREMY pulls out a map.

JEREMY (CONT'D)

The minimap says I'm behind enemy lines, but where are they?

BADDY1 appears behind JEREMY.

BADDY1

Right here.

BADDY1 shoots JEREMY. BADDY2 walks up next to BADDY1.

BADDY2

Really? Right here? You couldn't just shoot him, you had to get out a terrible one liner?

BADDY1

I know, I realized as I was saying it.

JEREMY and RANDAL respawn. JEREMY looks at RANDAL.

JEREMY

So I'm guessing they killed you and figured out our plan.

RANDAL

All I know is they killed me. I'm not very good at this game.

JEREMY

So I've noticed. But you're on my team and we'll have to make this work.

RANDAL

So do you have a new plan?

JEREMY

Hang on, just give me a sec-

JEREMY and RANDAL suddenly get shot. They respawn in a different area.

RANDAL
That's it, guns blazing!

RANDAL runs off. There's gunfire and RANDAL respawns next to JEREMY.

JEREMY
You done?

RANDAL
Nope!

RANDAL runs off again. JEREMY sighs and goes after him. There is a montage of JEREMY and RANDAL fighting, dying and respawning. The montage ends with JEREMY and RANDAL crouching behind a barrier.

JEREMY
This isn't working.

RANDAL
Yeah, you're really holding me back.

JEREMY
I'm sorry, I'm holding you back?

RANDAL
All your "strategies" and "plans".
The only way to do this is to rush in and take the enemy head on.

JEREMY
Well that hasn't worked out so far, has it?

RANDAL
Neither have your plans.

JEREMY
Because you never follow them right!

RANDAL
And you never stick close when I'm charging in!

RANDAL gets shot in the back of the head and falls forward. JEREMY fires a few rounds and kills RANDAL's killer but then is also shot in the back of the head and falls forward. JEREMY and RANDAL respawn and take cover.

RANDAL (CONT'D)

You know, I get the feeling you don't respect me and my abilities.

JEREMY

What gave you that idea? The fact that your KD ratio is -3?

RANDAL

Oh yeah, like -2 is so much better.

JEREMY

That's your fault; you're constantly alerting the enemy to our location and getting me killed.

RANDAL

Like I said, you don't respect my abilities.

JEREMY

Because you don't have any.

RANDAL

You know what, I don't need this.
You can deal with them yourself.

RANDAL disappears (logs out).

JEREMY

Oh yeah, just leave me by myself why don't you. Fine. I'll do this myself. While talking aloud to myself.

JEREMY steels himself and then runs towards the oncoming enemies. It cuts to a victory screen; JEREMY won. RANDAL reappears.

RANDAL

You won by yourself?

Without looking at him, JEREMY shoots RANDAL. This increases the score of the other team changing the result to JEREMY losing.

JEREMY

Oh come on!
