INT. VILLAIN HIDEOUT - DAY

AGENT is sitting in a chair with her hands tied behind her back. HACKER is standing in front of her.

HACKER

Ha ha ha! Now that I, the single greatest hacker in the world, have managed to trap you, the well meaning but ultimately inadequate secret agent, there is no one left to stop me!

AGENT

Thank you for that recap, I'm sure that if there was anyone who magically began watching us right as you began talking and had thusly missed the build up to this point it would be quite helpful.

HACKER

Yes, well, I always like to be thorough. That's how I was able to catch you.

AGENT

I know. I was there.

HACKER

Now I shall begin my hack.
(HACKER pulls out his phone)
And there is nothing you can do to stop me.

AGENT

I wouldn't count on it.

AGENT attempts to escape from their bindings for a few moments.

HACKER

No, really, there's nothing you can do to stop me, I tied the knots really tight.

AGENT

Well maybe if I knew what the stakes were that would give me the motivation to break free.

HACKER

That doesn't even sort of make sense, but I do love revealing my evil plots to anyone who will listen, so I am going to hack into... the Lofi hip hop radio - beats to relax/study to live stream!

AGENT

(Gasps)
Wait, what?

HACKER

You heard me right.

AGENT

Yeah, I know, it's just...

HACKER

Yes, you never realized just how evil I am. Ha ha ha!

AGENT

No, it's more like I thought you were going to hack into someplace more... important.

HACKER

What do you mean?

AGENT

You know, like the Pentagon, The First National Bank, Paypal, [Insert unimportant place]. Why would you want to hack the livestream?

HACKER

You see, when I was a small boy-

AGENT

No, none of that. I'm not listening to your backstory.

HACKER

Well that's very rude of you.

AGENT

You tied me to a chair.

HACKER

What does that have to do with anything?

AGENT

Just tell me why you're hacking the stream.

HACKER

I'm going to replace the lofi hip hop music with death metal.

Beat.

AGENT

Why?

HACKER

If you had let me tell you my backstory you'd understand.

AGENT

Fine, tell me the story.

HACKER

Well now I don't think I will.

AGENT

This is the single most ridiculous mission I have ever been sent on.

HACKER

I'm going to do the hack now, and there's nothing you can do to stop me.

HACKER begins to move his finger towards his phone.

HACKER (CONT'D)

Here I go. I'm really going to do it. I'm serious.

AGENT

Can you just do it already so I can get out of here?

HACKER

(Sigh)

Fine.

(HACKER pushes a button on his phone)

There. It is done. You have lost.

AGENT

Great.

Beat.

AGENT (CONT'D)
Can I go now?

HACKER
Fine.

HACKER unties AGENT. AGENT exits. HACKER watches them go.

HACKER
(CONT'D)
Ha ha ha! Now that the foolish agent is gone I am free to carry out my true plan! Wa ha ha ha!
Hacking McDonalds.

THE END
